

配布用

Important notice for patients

Please call the nearest public health department for consultation and receive instructions without fail before visiting a hospital, if, within the past 14 days, you have a history of travel or of staying in China, where the novel coronavirus infection is prevalent, or if you have had contact with those who have a fever and respiratory symptoms and have a history of travel to China.

Fukuoka Prefecture Medical Association